

Activity 5

. Today, write your own summary about your favourite book. Look at the summaries from yesterday, they included the main character and a short description of what happened to them.

Ask your family to guess which book you have described. Can anybody work it out? We would love to read these too, so don't forget to send it to our class email to have a go at guessing as well!

My Summary

My book was _____