

London

London is the capital city of England and is the largest city in England. It stands on the River Thames. There are around 8.9 million people living in London. London has a diverse range of people and cultures with more than 300 languages spoken in the area. In 2012, London held the Olympics, the Olympics are held every 4 years. London is the most visited city in the world by international tourists with 18.8 million international visitors per year.

Famous landmarks in and around the city include: the London Eye, Big Ben clock tower and Buckingham Palace. The Queen lives at Buckingham Palace.

