

History

Today you are going to create a poster explaining all of their traits that would make them a good explorer just like Christopher Columbus and Neil Armstrong.

On the back of this piece of paper, create your poster and draw pictures to show off all of the traits you have that would make you an excellent explorer.

Here are some examples of some traits you may need in order to be a good explorer.

Brave

A good leader

Strong

Organised

Determined