

Your job for life skills this week is to empty the washing basket and separate the washing into a light washing pile and a dark washing pile.

Look at the colour of all the washing and create 2 separate piles. One for dark washing and one for light washing.