WALT: understand the rules of direct speech.

Can you spot and edit the mistakes?

Circle the mistakes in these sentences and then re-write the sentences below, correcting the mistakes. Remember all the rules of direct speech: speech starts with a capital letter, inverted commas in the correct place, piece of punctuation before the closing inverted commas, a better word for said.

"Pens down everybody" commanded Miss Griffiths at the end of the lesson.

"Good morning Year 5!" said Miss Pike as the children entered the classroom.

Don't forget to take your jumper home today Mrs Begum reminded the young boy, pointing at the lonely jumper left on its peg.

"can you believe it is already time for lunch" Miss Salter asked the class looking at her watch.
