

The Lead Characters

Pick a character and follow their character journey throughout the book.

Ben:

Ben is very mature for his age, perhaps a little disinterested in the things young chaps usually enjoy. With a love for plumbing, one of his favourite past-times is reading Plumbing magazines and fixing the pipes in his home. He is not very much like his parents which perhaps makes him feel quite lonely. His parents are born performers, dancing every Friday night which leads him to his weekly visits with Granny. At first, Ben thinks is Granny is 'boring' and just like any other. Hiding his cabbage soups in plant pots he would do what he could to get through the evening until he could return home. That was until... he found out what his Granny was really up to...

Granny:

Granny is the mother to Bens father (David Walliams). She is petite, living in a classic 'grandparents' house with garish wallpaper and old furniture. Granny loves the weekly visits from her grandson, but is devastated when she overhears a conversation between Ben and his parents saying how bored he is in her company. But Granny has a secret.... a BIG secret and she is about to bring her only grandchild Ben on board!

What is my character like when we first meet them?

What does my character love?

What problem does my character face?

What makes my character change throughout the book?

How had my characters relationship changed throughout the book?

What might the characters life be like now?

