

P.E

It is very important that we are still trying to do as much physical activity as possible while we are at home!

For your second P.E lesson, see if you can challenge yourself to walk 10,000 steps today by going on a lovely walk.

Whilst you are out, talk to the people walking with you and see if you can find out anything new about them!

