Instructions for use:

There are two elements to this Privacy Notice. Page 2 of this document is a simple version which can be made available at the point of data collection – i.e. attached to a visitor book, reception desk, or on the screen of an electronic sign-in system.

The main visitor privacy notice follows from Page 3 onwards which can be made available on request or could be added to your website. The first two pages can be removed when using this element.

Simple Text for Visitors that can be used on visitor books, attached to the reception desk, or used on electronic sign-in systems:

This Privacy Notice for visitors explains how and why we store personal information about those who visit the school. It provides a guide to our legal obligations and their own rights. Like any organisation which handles personal data, our school is the 'Data Controller' as such, we are registered with the ICO (Information Commissioner's Office) and we comply with UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR). Our ICO registration number is Z9395352.

We collect the information requested in the sign-in App.

Our legal basis for collecting this information is under Article 6(e) of the UK GDPR – Public Task, and Article 6(c) of the UK GDPR – Legal Obligation.

The reason we collect this information is for the safeguarding of young people and health and safety.

This data is not shared with any third party unless legally required and is retained securely by the school in line with our retention schedule. Please see our Data Protection Policy and Records Management policy and Data Retention guidance for further information. These are available on our website or on request from the school office.

Full information is available in our Privacy Notice (How We Use Visitor Information) which can be obtained on request.

Why We Collect and Use Visitor Information

We use visitor data to:

- Ensure the safeguarding of young people and vulnerable adults
- Maintain high standards of health and safety

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

(6c) A Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for us to comply with the law.

(6e) Public task: the processing is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest or for our official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

The lawful bases for processing personal data are set out in Article 6 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation.

Storing Visitor Information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please see our Data Protection Policy and Records Management policy and Data Retention guidance for further information. These are available on our website or on request from the school office.

Who We share Visitor Information With

We do not share visitor information with third parties unless we are legally required to do so.

Requesting Access to Your Personal Data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact the School Business Manager.

Depending on the lawful basis above, you may also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress

- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact our Data Protection Officer which is SchoolPro TLC Ltd via GDPR@schoolpro.uk. You can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
