

Thursday 14th January 2021

WALT: describe a setting

You need to draw a picture that represents the setting in our story. A setting is where the story takes place/where the characters live (in the woods). When you have drawn your picture, make a list of everything you've drawn. Remember, to sound your words out and form your letters correctly.

