Historical Recount

EXAMPLE

WALT: create a box up plan.

	Text Example	Your Ideas
Date	31 st January 1874	6 th August 1874
Who?	Peter – young boy	Elizabeth – young girl
Weather	It was so cold that the water formed little icicles.	The sweltering heat made sweat drench my body.
Where you are writing the diary?	In an overcrowded dormitory.	Hidden under a blanket in my box-shaped bed.
First event	The master stormed into our room to wake us up at 4:30am and ordered us outside to wash our face using the outside water pump.	The matron loudly rang the bell causing us to wake up with a shock. I noticed the sun was rising; rays beamed through the draughty crack in the wooden ceiling.
Second event	Breakfast	We all marched to the school room and sat in silence waiting for Mr Martins to start the day by reading aloud the next chapter in the Bible.
Third event	Soon after, we were ushered into the bustling workroom where I was ordered to unpick old rope and separate it into threads to be resold.	In the afternoon, we were dismissed from school and we headed to complete our assigned work. My job is to untangle piles of wool for the women who knit blankets for the master and his friends.
Forth event	Dinner	Bedtime arrived and it was time for us to get some well needed rested before another exhausting day. However, the only problem is, trying to sleep in a small, overcrowded dormitory is impossible.
Feelings/thoughts	The pain was so incredible that I wanted to cry. We are all so hungry. I feel weak and tired	My stomach felt empty. A tear rolled down my cheek as I tried to remember the last time I saw my family. I felt overwhelmed with sadness.
