

WALT: create multiplication sums using arrays.

Look at the pictures, count how many columns and rows there are. This will give the 2 numbers for the start of your multiplication sum. Then count them all for the answer.

EG  $4 \times 2 = 8$

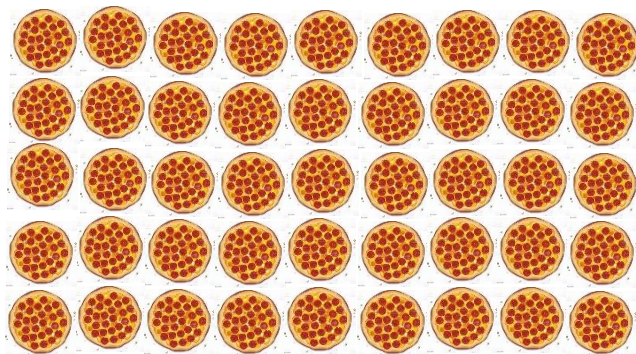

1)

2)

3)

1

4)