

Improving Your Reading with Summarising Sheba: Three Friends

Two boys and a man were in a canoe. They were slowly sailing on one of the little lakes in the state of New York. The brilliant, blue water rippled gently on either side of the boat. When the paddles were lifted, the water would rise in heaps of glittering bubbles. Dense, green bushes were on the bank of the lake at each side, with little, pink wildflowers blooming. Except for the canoe and a bird catching fish, the surface of the water was still and silent.

Each of the three people in the boat looked different. The man sat at the back. He was built very powerfully with large muscles. His face had been burned by long days in the sun. He was clothed in tanned deerskin with many little coloured beads on it. An axe and a knife were in the broad belt at his waist and a long rifle lay at his feet.
