

Activity 1: Active and Passive Sentences

WALT: use active and passive voice.

Change these sentences from active to passive:

1. Miss Dosanjh drove the large, maroon car.

2. Miss Hammond ate the tasty, cheese sandwich.

3. Mr Stokes answered the challenging reading comprehension questions.

4. Mr Wilkes kicked the football over the fence.

5. Miss Johnson painted the beautiful picture.

Changes these sentences from passive to active:

1. The dog was washed by the girl.

2. The amazing solo was sung by Mrs Bashir-Pugh.

3. The plane was flown by the qualified pilot.

4. The fizzy pop was drunk by Miss Dallison.

5. The detailed text message was sent by Miss Pike.

Identify if the sentence is active or passive by writing it inside the brackets and then change it into the opposite voice.

1. Miss Hackwood watched the birds at playtime. (_____)

2. The intense match was lost by Liverpool FC. (_____)

3. The children designed a beautiful poster about recycling. (_____)

4. A bird made a nest in the tree. (_____)

5. The fire alarm was investigated by the security guard in Tesco.. (_____)

Additional Challenge!

Can you think of any of your own sentences and write them in active and passive voice!