

At last, she had a great idea. If she couldn't buy a rocket, she would make one instead. Willow searched the house looking for all the things she would need. She gathered together three cardboard boxes, an empty toilet roll tube, an old egg box, two plastic bottles and an old cushion. She drew, folded, cut and glued all night long, until her rocket was complete. In the morning, she dragged it into the garden.

Q5: Did it take Willow a long time to make the rocket?

yes ☐

no ☐

Explain how you know.

Q6: What do you think that Willow will do next?

