

Wednesday 24th February 2021

Traditional Poetry

WALT: plan a poem in the style of William Blake.

In William Blake's poem, the tiger was represented as both beautiful and dangerous. What other animals are both beautiful and dangerous? Think of an animal that could be described to have these two qualities and today we going to plan a poem about the animal, in preparation to draft our poem tomorrow.

	William Blake's Ideas	Miss Griffiths' Ideas	My Ideas
Animal	Tiger	Bald Eagle
Words to describe its beauty	symmetry bright heaven smile art immortal (divine being?)	noble courage magnificent golden beak strong parades
Word to describe its danger	fearful burning dare dread deadly terror	sharp predator claws plunging fierce stern
Alliteration	burning bright dread, dare, deadly	clashed claws majestic movements soaring sky-high
Question	Could frame thy fearful symmetry?	Who could create this magnificent killer?	