Imperative Verbs

Good morning, Year 1! I'm Little Miss Bossy and I LOVE using imperative verbs. Imperative verbs are bossy words, they tell somebody what to do and I LOVE telling people what to do! Can you think of any imperative verbs?

Starter

Read the short description below. Can you work out where the capital letters need to go?

once upon a time, in a land far away lived a beautiful princess. she was called cinderella. she lived with her wicked step mother and 2 ugly sisters.

Imperative Verbs

Here are some examples of imperative verbs. Can you think of any more? Can you use some of these imperative verbs in a sentence?

Imperative verbs are also known as bossy verbs because they tell you what to do. We put them at the beginning of a sentence, which changes them into commands or actions that must be done.

Plenary: look at the sentences below. Which sentences have an imperative verb in them?

Tie a knot in the rope.

When is it going to be lunch time?

The grass is green.

Feed the cats now.

What a lovely day it is!
