

Wednesday 20th January 2021

Street Child

WALT: create a box up plan.

	My Ideas	Your Ideas
Will Jim successfully escape the workhouse?	Yes
What happened as he tried to escape?	He managed to escape without anyone spotting him. He waited until dark and snuck out while everyone was sleeping. His friend, Tip, distracted the man guarding the gates which allowed Jim to slip away unnoticed.
Where did he go?	He ran as fast as he could through the streets of London. He decided going to a busy area would be the safest idea so he could merge in with the 'hustle and bustle' of the streets.
How was he feeling?	He was feeling a mixture of relief and worry. He didn't know where to go but he knew anywhere would be better than the workhouse.
What happened next?	The first night away from the workhouse was fine. He was just so happy to be free. However, one week on he was finding it hard to find enough food to survive. He decided he needed to find his sisters!	