"I must Google him," said Ben.

"Do you know what happened to the last man who attempted to steal the Crown Jewels?" enquired the Queen.

"Was he hung, drawn and quartered?" asked Ben excitedly.

"Believe it or not he was pardoned," said the Queen with a wry smile...

"In 1671, an Irishman by the name of Colonel Blood tried to steal them, but was caught by the guards as he tried to escape. He hid this very crown I am wearing now under his cloak and dropped it on the ground just outside. King Charles II was so amused by Colonel Blood's daring attempt that he set him free."

"I must Google him," said Ben.

Can you Google Colonel Blood? What can you find out about him?
